Tips to Get to Know Your Professors

Whether you are taking classes online or on-campus, getting to know your professors is very important. Professors encourage students to communicate with them, ask questions and stay engaged to help them reach success. Professors can also act as a reference or serve as a mentor. Review the tips listed below to help you build an impactful relationship with your professors.

- Read the Syllabus - Review the course syllabus to understand your professor's expectations, policies, and suggestions on how to best communicate, including office hours (in-person or virtual).
- Don't Be an Online Stranger - Online classes lack face-to-face interaction, however, you can still engage with your professors through email, phone, and virtual office hours.
- Stay Engaged - Actively participate in classes and online message boards, submit assignments on time, utilize posted office hours, and email your professors with any questions or concerns.
